

Route

Ajaccio seaport & airport to Pratu, Petreto Bicchisano

Duration – approximately 1 hour

Distance – approximately 50km (30 miles)

Please note that your accommodation will normally be ready from 2pm on arrival day.

NB Sunday shopping: A lot of shops will be closed. Leclerc supermarket in Ajaccio is open until midday – turn left towards the city centre from the airport and it's on your right after about 5 minutes. From the port you'll see it over on your left.

Kilometres	Place
0	Leave the port and turn right at the small roundabout – the sea and the yacht marina are on your right. Take the N193, direction Propriano and Bonifacio.
4,5	At the Airport Campo Dell'Oro roundabout carry straight on following signs for Propriano and Bonifacio. (Those emerging from the airport, turn right at this roundabout and continue to follow these instructions.)
7 (route from Bastia joins here)	Turn right at the 2 nd roundabout after the airport taking the N196, direction Propriano and Bonifacio.
11	Turn left at the 4 th roundabout after the airport taking the N196 to Propriano and Bonifacio
19	Cauro Village – boulangerie (bakery), Spar, bars and restaurants.
33	Village of Grosseto Prugna – small épicerie (grocers) and bar/restaurant
47	Turn right at the roundabout just before the village of Petreto Bicchisano (two bakeries, general stores, butcher, post office, petrol/garage, bars and restaurants) : following the D757, direction Porto Pollo.
47,5	Pass the 'coopérative laitière U Taravu' (very good cheese makers) on your right then arrive in a small hamlet of houses called 'I Croci'
49	Small old stone house on the right by the road. Slow down! If you get to 'Corsicpark' you've gone too far. Immediately by this house take the small concrete lane that descends on the right, signposted 'Biscuiterie'.
49,1	After about 50 metres you will pass the 'Biscuiterie Etori' (good biscuits sold here) then arrive at a small junction with 3 tracks and some dustbins. Don't take the tarmac tracks! Take the small concrete track that descends immediately to the left next to our letter box (drive slowly it's a bit bumpy!).
49,4	Drive through the wooden gate and take the upper right hand drive to Chalet San Petru or the lower left hand drive to the cabins.
